Franklin County Commissioners to Salute Local Olympic Medalist Abby Johnston

During the 2012 Summer Olympics in London, Franklin County native Abby Johnston -- whose family still calls Upper Arlington home -- seized a lifelong goal by winning a silver medal in women's 3-meter springboard synchronized diving, representing America's first medal in the relatively new Olympic sport.

Abby and her family will join Franklin County Commissioners at the start of Tuesday morning's General Session meeting to celebrate and recognize her achievement.

Throughout the year, Commissioners have highlighted the national recognition, jobs and salaries, and life lessons of sportsmanship and teamwork that come from amateur, collegiate, and professional sports in Franklin County.
